SCOPE AND CONTENT

The North Central Illinois Genealogical Society records consist of 10 volumes of cemetery inscriptions from 8 different townships within Winnebago County, Illinois, 1 volume of surnames which appeared in the Pecatonica News from 1872-1917, and a 1986 directory of members of the Society.

Within the volumes of township cemetery inscriptions, each cemetery is named, inventoried and indexed separately. The location of each cemetery is given at the beginning of its listing. Contents of each cemetery are arranged by headstones row number. The indexes are arranged alphabetically by individual surname.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The North Central Illinois Genealogical Society was organized in March 1979. The Society's areas of interest and coverage are Winnebago, Boone, Ogle, and Stephenson Counties in Illinois. The purpose of the Society are threefold: to stimulate and encourage an interest in genealogy; to discover, collect and preserve genealogical material; and to promote and publish genealogical material.
