SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Maple Grove Grange Collection dates from 1872 to 1982 with the majority of the collection consisting of meeting minutes. The remainder of the collection includes a rollbook, manuals and songbooks, a group photograph of the grange, and a constitution and by-laws for the Winnebago County Grange.

For further information regarding other granges in the northern Illinois region the researcher should consult the Regional Collections Guide.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Maple Grove Grange organized on February 14, 1907. The grange met in members' homes and then in Elmwood School. The organization remained active until December 6, 1963 when the members voted to turn their charter back to the State Grange. After the outstanding bills were paid, the balance of the money in the treasury was divide equally among the members to give to their favorite charity.
